Paralegal

The Pennsylvania Health Law Project (PHLP) seeks to hire full-time paralegals to protect and advance the rights of clients seeking Medicaid coverage and services. PHLP Mission

Pennsylvania Health Law Project is the designated state-wide health advocacy project of the Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network. This position will involve: (1) handling a high-volume caseload regarding access to health insurance coverage and services, (2) representing clients at internal managed care appeals and administrative hearings; and (3) developing community education materials and conducting trainings to professional and lay audiences. With the supervision of an attorney, the paralegal will have significant autonomy in interviewing and advising clients, preparing witnesses and exhibits, and presenting factual and legal arguments during appeal proceedings.
